

Report (Gandhi Study Circle – Committee 2019-20)

On the occasion of 150th Birth Anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi an event was organized by Gandhi Study Circle on 26th September 2019 at Bhagini Nivedita College (Delhi University), Kair, New Delhi- 110043. The event included various activities that lasted all day long. It started with lamp lighting followed by Saraswati Vandana. After which the students of the college recited the famous bhajan 'Vaishnav Jan'. Then the students performed a play wherein the values taught by Gandhiji were depicted. Both the above performances were highly appreciated by the audience. Finally there were several competitions that included singing, speech and quiz. An essay writing competition was organized by the members of the Gandhi Study Circle on 17th September 2019. Winners of all the competitions including essay writing were announced on 26th September 2019. Overall it turned out to be a great event that was rejoiced by students and teachers.
