patriotic songs in Indian regional languages

"Azadi ka Amrut Mahotsav" committee organised an audition for the selection of the students for singing patriotic songs in Indian regional languages in July, 2021. The patriotic songs sung by our college students in various Indian regional languages are as follows: Hindi, Bengali, Punjabi, Sikkimese and Malayalam.

Brief introduction of the students who have sung the regional patriotic songs are as follows:

- Kabita Pariyar, B. A. (Prog.) 2nd year
- Benita Pradhan, B. A. (Prog.) 2nd year
- Ananya Jyoti, (B.Com) 1st year
- Ishita Malik, History (Hons.) 1st year
- Princy Punnoose, B. A. (Prog.) 1st year

The short description of the regional songs are as follows:

☞ "Sabna To Ucchi Teri Shaan Ve Tirangeya, Sabna To Ucchi Teri Shaan

Tere Utte Hind Nu Guman Ve Tirangeya, Tere Utte Hind Nu Guman"

This Punjabi song portrays the honor, valour and selfless sacrifice of the soldiers stationed day and night on the borders to defend the nation from any harm.

☞ "Janha Bagcha Teesta Rangit,

Jahan Kanchendzonga Seer

Yehi Ho Hamro Dhana Ko Desh, Tapawan Ho Pyaro Sikkim"

This song was the former national anthem of the Sikkim state. It was written in praise of the natural beauty as well as the two famous rivers, Teesta and Rangit of Sikkim.

☞ "Madhuram Madhuram Amrutham Choriyum Mamadesham,

Sindhu Ganga Mandra Tala

Hyma Swarga Sadhanam"

This beautiful Malayalam song was composed by poet Rafeeq Ahammed. In this song the natural beauty and diversity of India has been described.

👉 "Arun yeh Madhumay Desh Hamara,
Jahan Pahunch Anjaan Kshitij Ko
Milta Ek Sahara,
Arun yeh Madhumay Desh Hamara"

In this patriotic poem composed by Jaishankar Prasad, he commends the motherland India with a foreigner's point of view. He describes how an outlander is made to feel welcome in India by the hospitality of its people.

👉 "Jodi Tor Dak Shune Keu Na Ashe, Tobe Ekla Cholo re"

This patriotic song in Bangla language was composed by poet Rabindranath Tagore spreads the message that one should remain optimistic in all situations and keep moving forward in life.
